

Camden up close Treasure Trail: Question & answer sheet

Friends of the Earth

- Q1. Where can you catch a Jenny Wren cruise? A: Inspiral lounge, this is also a great place to sample vegan food, and in the evening listen to music
- Q2. Where is evil from? A: Evil from the needle – tattoo parlour
- Q3. One of the fastest growing sources of carbon emissions is hanging down above which house? A: The house of leather, with an airplane above it
- Q4. When did Charles Dickens live on Bayham Street? A: 1823, reference a small blue plaque
- Q5. How many different bus routes can you take from Camden Town? A: 22 – think of all the places you can visit with just one bus
- Q6. When was Meriah Duchesne born? A: August 8th 1759, inscribed on a token
- Q7. Who or what lives in numbers 36, 27 & 33 in the tree? A: birds & bats
- Q8. How many kgs of food have they saved this week? (A: week of 24 Sept 2011 - 92 kg)
- Q9. What's the link between Goodenough College and climate change? A: The library is dedicated to Charles Parsons who invented the steam turbine
- Q10. What latitude and longitude are referenced here? A: North 51° 34' 24", West 000° 07' 03", on the sundial
- Q11. Where could you have listened to a lecture on the restoration of an Egyptian solar boat? A: the Egyptian Exploration society, no 3 Doughty Mews
- Q12. Who designed the Tree of Life and path? A: Carol Cooper and Panels by local people
- Q13. How long has St Pancras Old Church been a site of worship? A: Since 314 AD
- Q14. Which literary apprentice is responsible for digging up graves and moving the grave stones under one tree when the Midland Railway wanted to build a new line? A: Thomas Hardy
- Q15. How far is little Venice? A: 2 ¾ miles
- Q16. How long does the overground take to Kew? A: 35 mins
- Q17. What is the odd coloured flower shop? A: The Blue Daisy
- Q18. Which gym has steps on its roof? A: The Armoury – there's something quite ironic about people driving to the gym to exercise – the journey would have made a good workout if done with other forms of transport
- Q19. How long was Dr Hopkins a Hampstead GP? A: 50 years
- Q20. What's the evening show at the Everyman Cinema this evening? (A: 24 Sept 2011 - Tinker, Tailor, Soldier, Spy)

Don't forget to go back and explore some of the hidden places you have visited today! And if you have any suggestions to add to this treasure trail or want to know more then please email us on camdenfoe@gmail.com or visit our website at www.camdenfoe.org.uk.
Thanks for joining us today.